City of Diamondhead to host special election for Ward 2, Ward 3 council seats

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The city of Diamondhead will host a special municipal election on Tuesday, May 10, for its Ward 2 and Ward 3 council seats, following the resignation of Ward 2 Councilman Alan Moran.

Ward 3 Councilman Ricky Sheppard said Monday he and his family have purchased a house in Ward 2 and he will resign his Ward 3 seat in order to run for Moran's Ward 2 post.

"In order to spare the

taxpayers the expense of having another special election, I thought I would go ahead and step down in Ward 3 and run for the Ward 2 position," Sheppard said.

The non-partisan spe-

Alan Moran

cial election will be held at the Diamondhead Community Center, located at 5300 Diamondhead Circle. The last day for interested candidates to qualify is April 20 by 5 p.m. Candidate information packets are available at Diamondhead City Hall Monday through Friday, between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

If no candidate in an election receives a majority of the votes cast, the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes will have a run-off election to be held three weeks later.

Moran resigned from his post in March, following his arrest in February for one count of simple assault — causing bodily injury; and one count of contributing to the delinquency of a child for allegedly "touching" and buying alcohol for a 17-year-old boy.

The boy's family later filed suit against Moran.

In his resignation letter, received from Moran's attorney Donald Rafferty, Moran stated that "It has been an honor to serve with all of you throughout my term. In light of the current groundless allegations, I feel that this could and would become a dis-

Waveland city clerk resigns after board votes to suspend without pay

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

Last Wednesday, Waveland City Clerk Mickey Lagasse on Wednesday tendered his resignation, effective Friday, April 1.

At the March 28 special meeting, the Waveland Board of Mayor and Aldermen suspended Lagasse for five days without pay after an executive session.

The reason stated for the executive session was the discussion of a matter concerning "city clerk's travel to Flowood, MS for training session with BBI during the week beginning March 14, 2022."

After executive ses-

sion, Ward 1 Alderman Jeremy Burke ruled on the following motion, "to suspend Mickey Lagasse, city clerk, for five days without pay and to reimburse the city for two nights of hotel stay and two days of per diem."

Ward 3 Shane LaFontaine seconded the motion.

The voting went as follows: Burke voted "yes"; Ward 2 Alderman Bobby Richardson voted "yes"; LaFontaine voted "no"; and Ward 4 Alderman Charles Piazza voted "no." Waveland Mayor Mike Smith broke the tie with a vote of "yes."

City attorney Malcolm Jones read a statement on behalf of the board.

"Based upon the investigation that we conducted, that I personally did, the board found that there was no intent of Mr. Lagasse to defraud the city in any way,"

Redistricting Maps Affect Coastal MS Districts

MS Senate Districts
JR202 as Adopted on March 29th, 2022

New Senate District Map

BY HUNTER DAWKINS
THE GAZEBO GAZETTE

Last Thursday, the Mississippi Legislature adopted both chambers' state redistricting maps that accounted for the population changes in legislative districts. Specific precincts, especially in the Coastal counties, were changed to adapt to the 2020 Census. The biggest change for Hancock County is that state Sen. Philip Moran's District 46 will shift west, and Sen. Mike Thompson's District 48 will now include Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

House District 122 and Senate District 52 were updated each decade to account for population changes shown by the Census.

Thompson (R-Pass Christian, Long Beach, Gulfport) spoke about the inclusion of these new precincts, saying "I am happy with how State Senate District 48 was drawn. Because of the net population decrease in Mississippi and the population growth on the Coast, each district had to decrease in population to comply with federal guidelines."

For Thompson's district, that meant having to give up the two Gulfport Bel-Air precincts and shift to the west. As a result, District 48 will include all of Pass Christian, portions of Bay St. Louis and Waveland south of Highway 90. The two Bel-Air precincts were picked up by District 49 State Sen. Joel Carter of Gulfport.

Moran (R-Kiln, Diamondhead, DeLisle) will lose half of his representation in Hancock County, but did pick up nearly half of the district within Western Harrison County.

I'm excited about adding in these new, strong precincts, but sad about losing West Pass Christian

GENERAL MANAGER

The Bay-Waveland School District's bid for a $37.8 million bond issue failed by a nearly 2-to-1 margin in a special election on Tuesday.

"The citizens won tonight," Ron Thorp — who had led a months-long battle against the bond issue — said

Tuesday after the results were announced.

A total of 2,223 people cast their ballots at two polling places on Tuesday: 1,411 people voted in Bay St. Louis; and 822 voted in Waveland.

Pass Christian hires former Waveland Comptroller as City Clerk

BY HUNTER DAWKINS
THE GAZEBO GAZETTE

The city board of aldermen appointed Ronald C. Duckworth last week to fill the vacancy of City Clerk. Thursday, March 31 was Duckworth’s official first day on the job after two special board meetings were conducted to make the choice.

Upon Pass Christian Mayor Jimmy Rafferty’s recommendation, the Board unanimously approved the hire of Duckworth as the city’s new city clerk at a salary of $65,000 per year.

Previously, Duckworth was the Comptroller/Deputy City of Clerk for the city of Waveland since 2015. Duckworth was appointed by the Board of Alderman before last week’s resignation of Waveland’s City Clerk Mickey Lagasse.

During the interview process at the first special meeting called by Pass Christian Mayor Jimmy Rafferty, Duckworth acknowledged the city clerk and comptroller job should be blended because of keeping track of the finances as former clerk; Marian Governor has accomplished.

“I don’t want to philosophize this, but you need to do your job and do it right,” stated

Former Waveland Deputy Clerk/Comptroller Ron Duckworth speaks among Pass Christian Board of Aldermen in the special meeting notice for the city clerk position.

Duckworth, when responding to a question about making sure the board, department heads and the mayor were within their finances. “She’s been strong (Marian Governor) and her reputation precedes her.”

When asked, Duckworth said his departure from Waveland was because of complications with another member of the staff, without saying providing names.

According to Duckworth, the city’s software could take between one to three months training, but will be adjusted before the next city budget is adopted.

Pass Christian and Waveland City Attorney Malcolm Jones backed Duckworth’s job credentials and resume, stating that he worked with the comptroller for two years and appreciates all his work in the city.

Duckworth is a native of Jackson, who obtained his CPA after graduation from Mississippi State University. The new municipal clerk worked for a healthcare organization in Jackson and was the Chief Financial Officer for a truck/construction company before moving to Waveland.

Former City Clerk Governor will provide training until her consulting contract is up at the end of April as previously approved by the board.

Moran added the County Farm/Gulf Haven, West Orange Grove and East Orange Grove precincts from Gulfport to his district. Moran said he plans to run for re-election for one more term.

Mississippi Heroes fest scheduled for April 23

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The Hancock County Tourism Bureau and Alice Moseley Folk Art Museum have teamed up with Mississippi Heroes to host a memorial celebration for Lt. Michael Boutte and Cayce Seal on April 23 at Commagere Park in Bay St. Louis.

The Mississippi Heroes Celebration, scheduled to begin at 10 a.m., will feature an antique car show; live music by Joni Compretta & Baytown Groove, Monsters at Large, the Glory Rhodes Band and the St. Rose Gospel Choir; a Pastalaya/Jambalaya Cookoff sponsored by Champion Dodge; and a superhero 5K race. It will also include exhibitors, vendors and a kids' area. Race registration begins at 8 a.m.

"It's always been my goal and my dream and my wish that maybe one day we could re-institute Bridge Fest," Alice Moseley Museum Executive Director Lonnie Falgout said. "That was the greatest show in Bay St. Louis. With the BP-funded renovations going on at the Depot District and all the work getting done, this would be the ideal setting, so we've put together something special."

"With the unfortunate deaths of some people across the Coast and the COVID-19 pandemic, we came up with the caregivers celebration. It's going to be honoring first-responders, like Michael Boutte and Cayce Seal, who tragically lost their lives, but it's also going to honoring caregivers and first-responders who are out there every day helping us all. They're the heroes. Police, fire-rescue, ambulance workers, lineman like Cayce, doctors and nurses and everybody else who puts themselves out there for us every day."

Falgout said he and Hancock Tourism Bureau Myrna Green got together with the Mississippi Heroes foundation and the Mississippi Tourism Bureau in Jackson to make the festival happen.

"We're going to do this first festival on Nov. 6 and it's going to be an all day thing," Falgout said. "We're kicking it off with a 5K race, and the runners are going to be dressed as superheroes. Hopefully we won't have to, but each year, if we lose a first-responder, we'll add their name to it."

"This is going to be a big event and we're hoping it will encompass the entire Depot District."

Falgout said Champion Dodge and Hollywood Casino have also stepped up to help sponsor the event.

Waveland P.D. jails 19-year-old for allegedly shooting step-father

ECHO STAFF

Waveland police on Sunday arrested a Pass Christian man for allegedly shooting his step-father.

At approximately 7:18 p.m. Sunday, central dispatch "advised Waveland officers that a shooting had occurred at 404 Olivari St. in Waveland," Police Chief Mike Prendergast said in a press release Monday. "They were also advised that the suspect left the scene in a gray-colored vehicle."

Prendergast said Sgt. Josh Stockstill located the suspect's vehicle at Old Spanish Trail and McLaurin Street.

"The suspect vehicle refused to stop and was pursued into Bay St. Louis," Prendergast said. "Bay St. Louis police officers assisted with the pursuit. The pursuit ended when the vehicle struck a fence on St. Francis Street in Bay St. Louis. The suspect fled on foot and entered a residence, at which time he was apprehended while trying to exit through the back door."

The suspect was identified as Jabriel Raymond Alexander-Grace, 19, Prendergast said.

"Upon investigation, it was determined that the victim, Darrel Johnson, the suspect's step-father, had been shot," Prendergast said. "Upon further investigation, it was learned that the incident stemmed from an apparent domestic (dispute) that had occurred between the suspect's mother and step-father. Alexander-Grace was upset at his step-father and confronted him with a gun."

Johnson was transported to Ochsner - Hancock, where he was stabilized and then air-lifted to another facility, Prendergast said. There were no updates on his condition as of Monday morning.

Alexander-Grace was charged with aggravated assault - domestic violence; evasion - failure to stop a motor vehicle; speeding; reckless driving; possession of marijuana; and possession of paraphernalia.

He was still incarcerated at the Hancock County Adult Detention Center without bond as of Monday morning.

Prendergast said he would like to thank the Bay St. Louis Police Department and the Hancock County Sheriff's Office for their assistance with apprehending the suspect.

If anyone has information in the case, they're asked to contact the Waveland Police Department at 228-467-3669.

Bay P&Z denies zoning change for Ward 3 development

SEA COAST ECHO

The Bay St. Louis Planning & Zoning Commission last week denied a zoning change for a prominent local developer to build eight new homes in the Bay's historic "Backatown" neighborhood in Ward 3.

Developer Rodney Corr had submitted a request to subdivide a tract of land that currently includes three lots in order to build eight separate homes, and build a new road for them.

Corr told commissioners he grew up near the site and wanted to help improve the area, which has somewhat fallen into decline in the past couple of decades.

He said the development would be similar to another of his recent projects, and the homes would be sold in the $240,000 range.

Some opponents to the proposal said they thought eight homes in the space would be too crowded; others said they were afraid the development would increase the cost of living in the area, citing already-increased property taxes.

Still others said they feared the development would further burden the city's drainage system and make flooding worse.

The Bay St. Louis City Council was scheduled to discuss the issue further at its meeting on Tuesday evening.

An old man’s view of Climate Change: Part 1

The recent UN climate summit in Glasgow informed us that this is our “last chance” to tackle the “climate catastrophe”. UN envoy John Kerry warned us that we only have 9 years to avert “the Climate Crises”. The story is that man is causing Climate Change, that Climate Change is bad and that we must immediately stop using fossil fuels; namely, oil, natural gas, LNG, and coal. And of course, we are not to dispute the premise because it is “settled science”. As an old geezer who loves history and has employed his background in engineering, thermodynamics and paleoclimatology (earth history) for most if my life, I have seen many of these “the sky is falling” narratives over an 82-year lifetime. Some are amusing but some are disastrous. Almost all were over hyped and, in most cases, based on questionable premises. My suspicions were aroused when I came across an article by Jason Isaac in the January Epoch Times noting that if the US eliminated all its fossil fuel within this decade, the average worldwide temperatures would be less than two tenths of a degree lower in 2100! And this was based on UN data. This is hardly my idea of a “Climate Crises”.

I think it all started during the Late Dark Ages when the “consensus” was that the earth was flat. Galileo, who is now considered the father of modern science, was actually convicted in 1633 by the Roman Inquisition and spent the remainder of his life under house arrest because he had the temerity to state publicly that the earth was, in fact, round. Ferdinand Magellan had already circumnavigated the world and proved that a round earth was a fact, but it took another 100+ years for many of the “intelligentsia” to finally publicly accept the fact of a round earth. The lesson here is that just because somebody says there is a “consensus” or “settled science” does not mean something is necessarily fact, true, or indisputable.

Hancock History: Byrd’s Chapel

The Louisiana Purchase in 1803 did not clearly designate the boundaries between the French and Spanish colonies in the southwest corner of what would later become the Mississippi Territory. Even though this area of Mississippi south of the 31st parallel had originally been settled by French and Spanish Catholics, and that area was still considered by most residents to be under Spanish rule, some English Anglo-Saxon Protestants from the east coast of the United States moved into the Pearl River valley north of present day Picayune. However, it was not until the signing of the Adams-Onís Treaty in 1819 that these lands were fully recognized as part of the United States.

Early settlers to this region around Henleyfield in 1817 included Jesse McGehee, John Wheat, Henry Jarrell, John Strahan, James Tate, Solomon Lott, and Edward Buckley. Nevertheless, some early settlers along the Pearl River such as the Frenchman Simon Favre had received Spanish land grants. The McGehees first settled at Walkiah Bluff which was an ancient and excellent natural landing nearby on the Pearl River for Native American canoes and later steamboats. Today, Warren Glen McGehee (b. 1933) lives in Henleyfield where his ancestors have farmed for five generations. The McGehees migrated from the Scottish highlands and into Virginia before they came to the Pearl River area.

In 1820 the State of Mississippi authorized Alexander Frazier to build a toll bridge over the Hobolochitto Creek where he had previously owned and operated a primitive ferry. This allowed more convenient crossing of this waterway on the important Columbia-Gainesville Road just nine miles south of Henleyfield. This location was the precursor of present day Picayune. Jim Smith bought a tract of land containing a grove of beautiful poplar trees from some neighboring Choctaw for twenty bushels of corn.

His nickname became “Poplar Jim Smith” and that site was the precursor of present day Poplarville.

Sherrod and Zelpha Rouse Byrd were early pioneer settlers who lived north of Henleyfield in the neighborhood of present-day Byrd’s Chapel. Their nephew, Rev. John Ira Ellis Byrd, was a “circuit rider lay preacher” in Hancock County around 1820. In that year a Methodist church, Byrd’s Chapel, was completed, and its first services were held. The neighborhood of Byrd’s Chapel evolved separate from the neighborhood of Henleyfield which supported a Baptist church. These two codependent neighborhoods coexist even today. The place was called Riceville before the name of Byrd’s Chapel became more common.

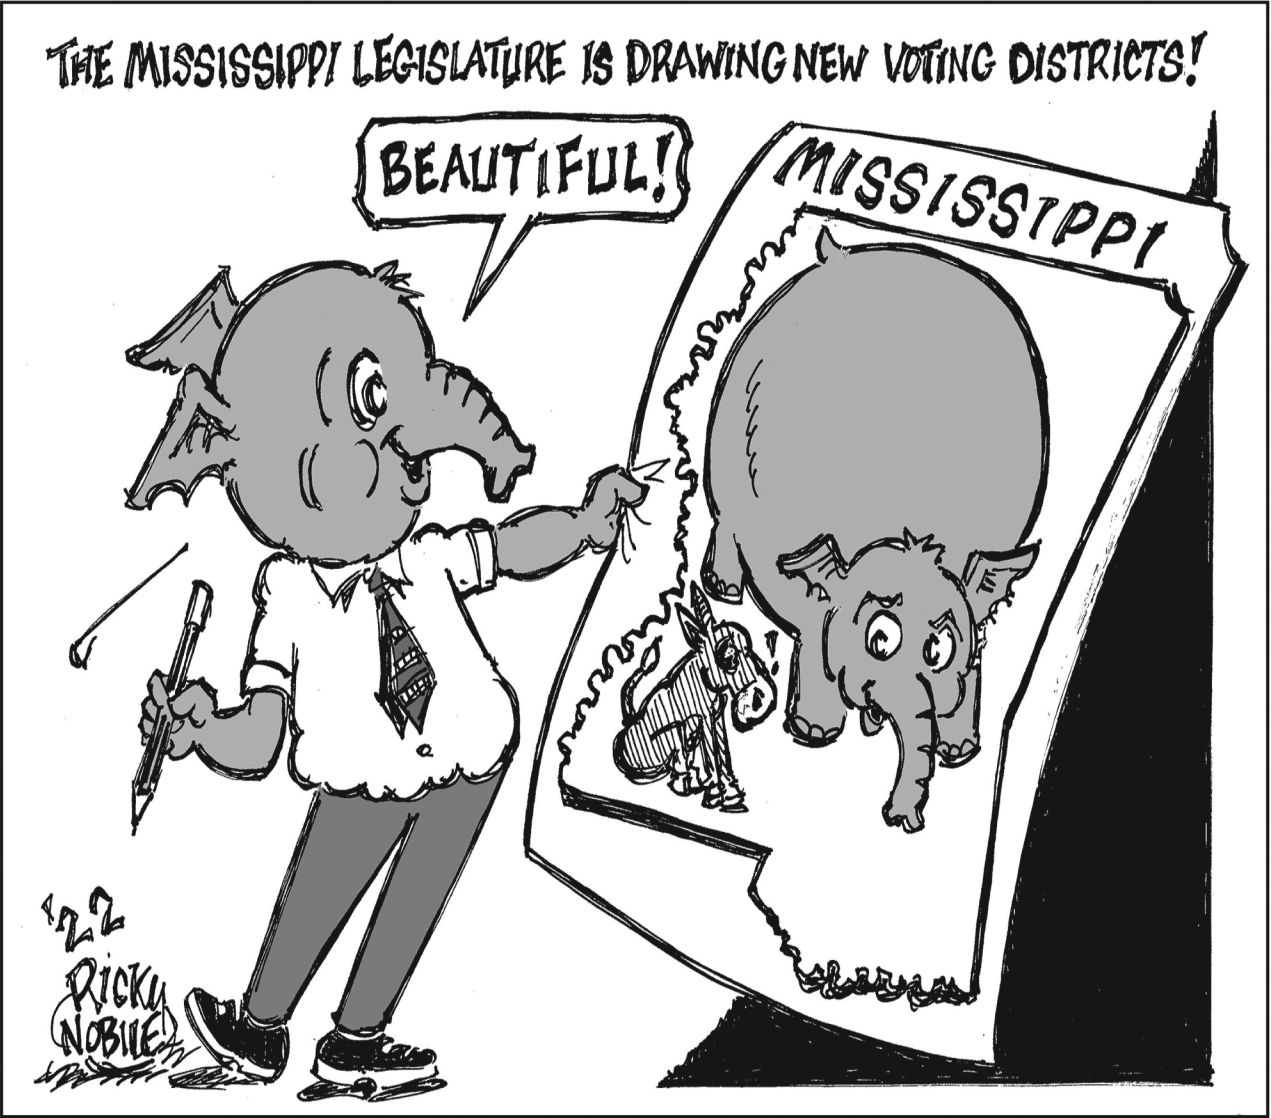

There have been four separate Byrd’s Chapel church buildings over the last two hundred years. The adjoining cemetery is believed to be the oldest cemetery in Pearl River County. June Ferguson is a fifth generation

A walk through the old cemetery will demonstrate multiple tombstones, the oldest dating back to the 1840’s, with family names such as Harvey, Tate, Mitchell, Ferguson, and Byrd. MS House Weekly Summary - Week of March 28

This was the thirteenth week of the 2022 Legislative Session. Legislators worked through the weekend to finalize the state budget and other bills. Most of the budget was not completed by Monday’s deadline, so the legislature passed House Concurrent Resolution 89 extending the session by a few days and suspending the deadlines for certain bills.

Though the hours at the Capitol were long, legislators worked extremely hard. The House adopted more than 80 conference reports on the floor.

Both the House and Senate redistricting plans, JR 1 and JR 202 respectively, were also publicly unveiled this week. Joint Resolution 1 was introduced on Tuesday, and only one amendment was adopted. Amendment 1 to JR 1 by Representative Zakiya Summers (D – Hinds) swaps some precincts in House Districts 67 and 68. JR 1 passed as amended 81-38 before being sent to the Senate. Joint Resolution 202 was taken up on Thursday. The resolution passed with little debate by a vote of 68-49. Both maps can be viewed on the MARIS website.

By the end of the week, it became clear that work on the state budget was not complete. The House passed House Concurrent Resolution 90, which further extends the date of adjourning sine die (the last day of the legislative session). This was done to ensure that the budget is finalized before session concludes. The original date of sine die was Sunday, April 3; per HCR 90, it has been pushed to Sunday, April 10 at midnight. Legislators hope

Waveland woman arrested for alleged meth trafficking

ECHO STAFF

Hancock County Sheriff Ricky Adam on Tuesdau announced the arrest of Glenda Pingel, 41, of Waveland, charging her with violations related to the possession with intent to distribute controlled substances.
On March 25, Hancock County Sheriff’s Narcotics Agents executed a search warrant at Pingel’s home in the 800 block of St. Joseph Street in Waveland, Adam said in a press release Tuesday.
“The search warrant was the culmination of a long-term investigation into the drug trafficking activities of Pingel,” Adam said. “The search of the residence resulted in the discovery and seizure of a felony amount of methamphetamine ‘ice.’”
Pingel was transported to the Hancock County Adult Detention Center, where she remained as of Tuesday afternoon, on charges of Possession with Intent to Distribute a Controlled Substance.

“The case may be presented for federal prosecution by Hancock County Sheriff’s Narcotics agents assigned to the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) Task Force, due to the quantities of narcotics distributed by Pingel, as well as the number of individuals involved in drug trafficking with Pingel,” Adam said. “More arrests are anticipated.”

“This investigation was initiated based on complaints received by the Waveland Police Department,” Adam said. “Their participation in the Hancock County Sheriff’s Narcotics Division provides a force-multiplier to their agency to investigate these types of complaints. Drug traffickers have no respect for municipal boundaries, so law enforcement in Hancock County is a unified effort between all agencies.”
The Hancock County Sheriff’s Office Narcotics Division is comprised of agents from the Hancock County Sheriff’s Office and the Bay Saint Louis and Waveland Police Departments. Sheriff Adam encourages the public to report drug activity by calling his office at 228-466-6900 or Mississippi Coast Crime Stoppers at 1-877-787-5898.

JOHN LUTHER TANKERSLEY, JR.

John Luther Tankersley, Jr., 84, also known as “Tank” to his Navy brothers and “Papa John” to the world, passed away Saturday, March 26, 2022 in Waveland, MS.

Papa John was born on December 12, 1937 in New Orleans, LA. He was a proud Vietnam Veteran who retired from the United States Navy after 30 years of service to his country. After retirement, he became a beloved security guard at various locations along the Gulf Coast including 10 years at Hancock County Hospital. He coached Hancock County Little League for 5 years, with his granddaughter (Holly) as his main player. He was the biggest Saints fan who always needed his football buddy (Joshua Sholar) for every game. Papa John loved flea markets, farmers markets, and he couldn’t pass a yard sale without stopping. He was a wonderful and very loving father, grandfather and great-grandfather who will be sadly missed by his family and numerous friends. He was always out and about enjoying life. He loved his best friend Charley, his fur friend/door greeter Rose, all the Waveland Walmart employees, the breakfast crew at Walmart McDonald’s and the employees at Woodforest Bank in Walmart who all showed so much kindness and compassion to Papa John. He had a heart of gold and was one in a million.

traction in my ability to represent and serve the citizens and the city of Diamondhead, therefore I will resign as Ward 2 councilman, effective immediately.”

Rafferty also entered a “not guilty” plea for Moran in Hancock Justice Court.

After that, however, Moran Moran was charged with Touching of a Child for Lustful Purposes and two counts of Contributing to the Delinquency of a Minor in a separate incident, according to a sheriff’s office press release.

The civil suit and criminal complaints are still pending.

Justice Court Judge Brian Necaise scheduled a trial date in the first criminal complaint for Aug. 17, but all local judges have recused themselves, claiming ties to Moran’s family.

• RESIGNS

City attorney Malcolm Jones said. “This is based upon the fact that there was a schedule change, he was going up there for training, and he was told that there was a schedule change. There was wrongdoing, and a result, that’s why he got the punishment that he did.”

After the meeting, La-Fontaine said, he voted “no, due to the fact that I felt that it should have been termination.”

“I felt that suspension wasn’t enough,” he said.

Piazza said that he also wanted more than a suspension.

“In my heart, I felt like a law was broken,” he said. “There was intent, but I’m being told, ‘no there wasn’t.’ I’m very upset and disappointed. I felt the one responsible for overseeing the day to day operations at city hall dropped the ball. I was even told that I was on a ‘witch hunt.’ I was elected to uphold the Constitution against all enemies foreign and domestic. And the last part of the Oath of Office is ‘so help me God.’”

In his resignation letter, Lagasse stated, “I have enjoyed my time with the city and think for the most part you have a great and dedicated team, I have no ill will toward you, however at this time, I am no longer able to be effective to you for the duties in which I was appointed. The reason for my resignation is because of the current climate and with recent discussions with the Board of Alderman, I do not feel that we can move past these issues. Although the board did their own investigation and found no intent of wrongdoing, I have already been tried and convicted by the public and lost the confidence of the board and the citizens. I believe that after all the details are made public, those opinions will change, but for me as city clerk, it is too late. I believe there is one particular board member, that for some reason, has chosen me as his new target and I do not think that any action I’ll try to take will move the city past this.”

Lagasse said in his letter that he plans to pursue employment that will allow him to utilize his “skills in contacts to make a state and city a better place to live and work.”

Lagasse was appointed city clerk in February 2019.

• BOND

In the final tally, 1,473 people voted against the bond issue, and 760 voted for it. In order for the bond measure to have passed, 60 percent of those casting ballots would have had to vote for it.

Hancock County Circuit Clerk Kendra Necaise said Tuesday that voting had been brisk at both polling places all day long.

“I’m pleased to see such a good turn-out,” Necaise said. “There was a lot of interest in this election.”

The Bay-Waveland School District Board of Trustees approved a motion seeking the bond issue in January.

Board President Casey Favre said at the time that the list of projects to be funded by the bond issue was compiled after lengthy meetings with district faculty and staff and included renovations, new facilities and other improvements at all of the district’s schools.

He said the bond issue was “an attempt to leverage (federal funding levied through the CARES Act for pandemic relief) to the very best of our abilities.... If we intend to make the most out of the federal money, that has to be done in conjunction with the bond issue.”

Favre said many of the issues the board hoped to correct with the bond issue have existed since long before he joined the board six years ago.

The last time the district sought a multi-million dollar bond issue was 1997.

Thorp said publicly that he felt the proposed bond issue was way too much and would unduly raise people’s property taxes.

“The citizens of Bay St. Louis and Waveland have spoken very loudly tonight,” Thorp said Tuesday. The question now, is, is the school board listening? Are the councilmen of Bay St. Louis listening? Are the aldermen of Waveland listening?”

In more recent times, us older types remember the 1950’s warning from Paul Ehrlich’s 1968 book: “The Population Bomb”. that the world population is “out of control and millions of people will starve to death by 1980.” How wrong was all the hype surrounding that scare? Then, we have the world-wide Alar scare of 1989 where supposedly the Alar spray used on apples was killing us. The sale of apples was decimated and farmers lost their farms. People were actually panicked by months of terror press. However, within a year, the EPA and Cal Berkley found incorrect data had been improperly used leading to another false scare. Still another “the sky is falling” scenario was the start of the environmental movement in 1962 with the book “Silent Spring” by Racial Carson. The resulting mass terror led to the banning of DDT. All was fine until years later when authorities discovered that DDT was, when handled carefully, no worse than other pesticides. In 2006, the World Health Organization lifted the ban and reinstating DDT when used correctly. Unfortunately, the intervening years resulted in thousands of deaths (or millions depending who you wish to believe) due to inability to control the malaria causing mosquito in poor African countries. Dr. Arata Kochi of the World Health Organization said that “politics could no longer stand in the way of science”. Sounds like good advice for today.

Closer to home, in the early 80’s, we were all told that the earth had been cooling since the 1940’s and Global Cooling became the “consensus”. Then, when it was noticed that earth temps had actually been increasing since the early eighties, not decreasing, the narrative suddenly changed to “If we don’t do something about Global Warming, we will all die. And it is settled science. Many of us remember Al Gore declaring that, if global warming was not stopped, by 2020 New York and Miami would be flooded, all the Artic Ice would be melted, and all the polar bears would die. To the best of my knowledge, absolutely none of this happened though it was prominently featured in news reports of the time. Meanwhile, Mr. Gore made millions ($200 million per Investors Daily) dealing in “climate alarmism” while collecting a Nobel Prize in 2007.

Currently, the “green” narrative (mostly from the IPCC -Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change- under the auspices of the United Nations) is that man is causing Global “Change” because he is generating CO2 by using fossil fuels. Man must switch to “green” energy such as wind mills, solar cells, electric cars and trucks, batteries etc. We are constantly being inundated with a long list of the terrible things which will happen..... IF climate change happens. (Last fall, one of our esteemed politicians even allowed as how that climate change was responsible for 2 million illegal immigrants flooding across our southern border!) The worst case is always emphasized. And, of course, this is usually portrayed as “settled science” even though the UN itself admits there is, in fact, some “uncertainty” in these assertions. A problem is that the UN conclusions are based primarily on computer programs and people’s opinions, not observations or scientific proof. Again, the UN itself admits that there is little “observational” data that humans contribute to climate change. But because of all the super hyping, the Washington establishment has spent billions of taxpayer dollars subsidizing green energy, increasing taxes, and is starting to curtail the use of fossil fuels. Because history often repeats itself and because of my association with the ways of Washington, I decided to take a closer look at the whole “Climate Change” thing.

Note: I spent a year working with Washington Government Officials on industry regulations. During this time, I co-authored the 1989 Pipeline Safety Act signed into law by Bush #1 while testifying before several Congressional Committees and working with numerous Congressmen and Department rule maker/bureaucrats. In fairness, there are a lot of good people in Washington. Unfortunately, there are also many who will do almost anything to get their way, including skewing information and slanting narratives.

Can humankind actually stop climate from changing? Actually, No – for numerous reasons. As the National Geographics Article “Formation of the Earth” points out, the earth was formed along with our solar system about 4.5 billion years ago. It initially was little more than a big ball of molten rock and metal. Due to the Second Law of Thermodynamics, the earth has in the past and will continue in the future to cool due to the transfer of heat from its hot core to the frigid temperatures of space. If the earth had not cooled, humans, along with all other living entities simply would not exist today. Thus, in the long (Geologic) term, the earth is cooling and man can do nothing to stop it. This is FACTUAL science-based Physics confirmed by actual field observations. While the earth has and will continue to cool over the very long term, there are several other factors that has caused thousands of shorter term warming and cooling periods of the earth’s climate, none of which can be changed by man. These include:

The Milankovitch Cycles (see Wikipedia). In the mid-1920’s, a Serbian geophysicist proved mathematically that the earth’s orbit around the sun oscillates between a near-perfect circle and an elongated egg shape. There are two shorter cycles. These cycles cause major changes in the earth’s climate. These cycles are the primary causes of the very cold Ice Ages lasting 50,000 or so years between warm periods lasting from 5,000 to 10,000 years. We are currently in one of these warm periods called the Holocene Period. It is estimated that the Milankovitch Cycles cause as much as 25% of the earth’s climate variability. This science has been confirmed observationally by ice and sediment cores taken from Greenland and Antarctica in the 1970’s. From an engineering standpoint, I know of no means that man can stop Climate Change caused by the earth’s elliptical orbit around the sun.

Continental Drift. As previously mentioned, the earth is composed of a mostly molten hot core upon which “floats” the earth’s thin outer layer upon which we live. As noted in Wikipedia and first year geology text books, the continents are constantly moving due to plate tectonics. Though they move only fractions of an inch per year, over millions of years, the continents drift around the surface of our globe. As the continents change positions, they cause major changes in the earth’s ocean current patterns which, in turn cause major weather changes. The science of Continental Drift has been confirmed by geology, fossil recovery, and paleomagnetic measurements. From an engineering standpoint, I know of no means that man can stop Climate Change caused by continental drift.

Solar Variability – The UN Report itself notes that the sun is the largest supplier of energy to the earth’s surface. Solar radiation is about 99% of energy entering earth’s atmosphere. NASA estimates an approximate 25% variability in the sun’s heat coming to the earth (May, 2006, Ed. Robert Garner.) Scientists admit that the sun has irradiance variations that “...may lead to long-term climate variations.” Man cannot stop Climate Change caused by solar variability.

Water levels – Geologic measurements indicate that after the last Ice Age ended about 10,000 years ago, sea levels have risen about 400 ft. due to a warming earth melting the ice and also expanding the ocean water. Most of the ice that had been covering about 33% of the globe has now melted. As expected, today’s glaciers continue to melt during the current warming period. This continues to raise ocean levels. The rise has not been constant over the past 10,000 years but varies as the earth’s short term heating and cooling cycles occur. Measurements at the Bay Waveland Yacht club indicate our local water levels have risen about 0.18 feet per year over the recent past. Per Steve Koonin, Under Secretary for Pres. Obama at US Energy Dept.: “Record high temperatures are no more common today than they were 100 years ago. While global sea levels rise has been accelerating for the past several decades, it has shown the same up and down variability in the past when human influences were much smaller. Most sea level change can be put down to “natural variability” as the earth warming continues. There is very little man can do to stop water levels from changing, either up or down.

The use... and misuse... of statistics. We have all been inundated with numerous articles, TV shows, etc. that emphasize the negative... “IF” we do not accept the Green Scenario. For example, we are often told we “might” or “could” have more hurricanes, tornadoes, forest fires, destructive weather, draughts, etc. etc. IF we don’t stop climate change. (One Washington Pol even blamed the mess at the Mexican border on Climate Change!) The problem is that the “IF” or “might” or “could” means that what follows is an opinion, NOT science. As pointed out very succinctly in the 2007 paper “The Science of Global Warming in Perspective”, “Science is not an opinion, it’s a measurement. Solidifying opinions without measurements.... is propaganda, not science.” Even further, we very often hear “This year has been one of the hottest, (or coldest, wettest, driest, stormiest, etc.) years since records have been recorded”. This may sound scary until one recognizes that weather data such as temperatures, hurricanes, droughts, etc. have been recorded for ONLY the past 150 years or so. But weather has been varying and ongoing for millions of years. Even in Biblical times thousands of years ago, there are many records of storms, droughts, floods, etc. It is statistically incorrect to make a scientifically valid conclusion by using a miniscule sample of 150 years’ worth of weather data to represent millions of years’ worth of actual weather. Yet, it is done routinely to “sell” man-made climate change.

Editor’s Note: Almost all the information in this piece has been obtained by online information searches. Much is available on Wikipedia, US Government data bases, and standard news reports. The author certainly recognizes that others may have differing views and opinions of the world climate situation. Differing viewpoints would certainly be welcome, particularly those backed by actual science and not just “consensus” opinions.

KITTY CORNER

Marty is a super chill, 3 to 5 year old, happy boy. He came into the shelter as a stray, but he must have had a home at some time because he is so friendly and affectionate. As soon as you pet him, he starts purring and smiling. This baby is just a big chunk of love! Won't you give him the happy home that he so deserves?

MEET RED.

If you prefer the soft, fluffy type, believe it or not, this boy has the most unexpected soft and luxurious fur! It must be the Pyrenees in him. He is a 5 year old, Great Pyrenees/-German Shepherd/Hound mix, and he is a big ol' sweetheart. If you want love and affection, look no further than this loveable dude! Red is a people pleaser, and gives the best hugs and kisses. He is awesome with other friendly dogs, and loves a romp in our play yard with his buddies. He would be a wonderful addition to any family dynamic, whether it be a family with children, a single person or a couple seeking a loyal, loving partner. Red is the whole package! This fluffy love bug is still waiting for his someone special. Come meet him, and, hopefully, make him part of your family. Just be prepared for lots of affection. Our visiting hours are Mon-Fri 10am-3pm (Tues 1pm-3pm), or you may call our front desk at 228-466-4516 to schedule a meet-n-greet.

Attempting to define God

C. Gerald Richardson, D. Min.

Across the years there have been, and continue to be, numerous efforts to explain, define, and understand the concept of God. The epistle of 1st John in the Christian Scripture says simply, “God is love”. In some ways that may be about as good as we can do. The writer elaborates by indicating that to know love is to know God.

The 20th Century theologian Paul Tillich spoke of “the ground of all being”. What does that mean? Tillich understood that being is the essence of reality. This may include physicality, but it is much more. It is part of the totality of human experience. The ultimate expression of being is what we call God.

Humans are spiritual beings. This is not a religious or a dogmatic concept. It is simply the awareness that there is a spirit within us which shapes our personalities, our values, our ethical choices, and much more.

This concept is often referenced as “Imago Dei”, the image of God. This is what separates humans from other creatures. This is awareness and consciousness. It is how we know love, responsibility, good, evil, life, death, hope, despair, and all the many emotions and experiences which shape our lives.

Too often the popular understanding of God is that of a grandfatherly “Santa” in the sky. When we are good, he blesses us. When we are bad, he punishes us. Everyone gets what they deserve. While it is fair to concede that such beliefs are often prevalent, and some interpretations of scripture may support it, this is not the true nature of an enlightened understanding of God. The true nature of God is that of love. It is fair to say that if you believe in love you believe in God. We have too often distorted the language of spirituality. We have tried to cloak it in religion when its true home is in relationships.

It is certainly true that spirituality includes mystery. The concept of God is shrouded in its own mystery, but love and grace reside at its heart. A helpful way to reflect about God is not as “a being”. Rather, the awareness of God represents the essence of all being. There is a completeness in this insight which sustains us in the midst of the questions and challenges of life.

To believe in God, or to have a spiritual faith, is not to embrace magic, but to honor that holy presence which abides in us. The spirit of God is not “out there” or “up there”, it is internal. It is not a transaction to be executed or a deal to be made.

It is a gift to be received, a hope to be realized, a love to be shared. In the end, it is grace and peace. The heart of God is love, and it is big enough for us all. As we approach Palm Sunday and the end of Lent, let us be thankful for the broadness of God’s presence.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR COASTAL WETLANDS PERMIT AND WATER QUALITY CERTIFICATION The Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality has filed an application with the Department of Marine Resources requesting permission to conduct regulated activities under the provision of the Coastal Wetlands Protection Act, Title 49, Chapter 27, Mississippi Code of 1972. The Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) is proposing to protect shoreline marsh area by employing living shoreline techniques for a project located in Hancock County, Mississippi. The restoration activities proposed for the Hancock County Marsh Living Shoreline (HCMLS) Phase 6 project would be located offshore near the Hancock County Marsh Preserve in western Hancock County. The proposed project would consist of the construction of approximately 1.7 miles of breakwater structure off the Mississippi Gulf Coast from Bayou Bolan to Bayou Caddy. The purpose of the HCMLS Phase 6 project is to protect the Hancock County Marsh Preserve shoreline and salt marsh habitat from erosion and to create habitat for secondary benthic productivity. The project is being implemented by MDEQ as part of the RESTORE Act to enhance and extend the previously completed portions of the HCMLS project. The applicant is requesting a variance from Chapter 8, Section 2, Part III.N.O.1 of the Mississippi Coastal Program which states "Permanent filling of coastal wetlands because of potential adverse and cumulative environmental impacts is discouraged." and Mississippi Admin. Code Title 22, Part 23, Chapter 8, Section 114.01 which states, "Permanent filling of coastal wetlands below the mean high tide line because of potential adverse and cumulative environmental impacts is not authorized," and has justified these requests under Chapter 8, Section 2, Part I.E.2.c.iv of the Mississippi Coastal Program and Miss. Admin. Code Title 22, Part 23, Chapter 8, Section 118.04 by stating: "The activity requires a waterfront location, there is a significant public benefit in the activity, and a public hearing has been held." This public notice, project diagrams, and a copy of the full project application may be accessed on MDNR's website at https://dnr.ms.gov/permitting/. A copy can also be given upon request. In compliance with Section 401 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C.

1251, 1341), as amended by PL 95-217, the applicant will request certification from the Office of Pollution Control that the above mentioned activity will be in compliance with applicable provisions of Section 301 (33 U.S.C. 1311), Section 302 (33 U.S.C. 1312), Section 303 (U.S.C. 1313), Section 306 (U.S.C. 1316), and Section 307 (U.S.C. 1317) of the Act and appropriate requirements of the State Law. Any person wishing to make comments or objections to the proposed regulated activity must submit those comments in writing to the Department of Marine Resources by mail to 1141 Bayview Avenue, Biloxi, Mississippi 39530 before 1:00 p.m. on the day April 15, 2022. 03/30/22, 04/06/22, 04/13/22

Shore Thing: Best in the West

Shore Thing Fishing Report

BY CPT. SONNY
SCHINDLER

Some of our guides have been running out of our Bayou Caddy Dock the last couple weeks. If you have not been down to the Waveland, Lakeshore, Ansely area lately, it is worth a good once over. Food truck Friday on Coleman Avenue is a must do. From the fun crowd at Kent and Sue's quick stop, to the helpful staff at "The Boat-house", to the amazing Buccaneer State Park, our western side of the Hancock county is just awesome.

I recently had a fun crew of folks from the Silver Slipper Casino. Host with most, Mike Scardino brought some people over, to spend the day on the water. Everyone (myself included) really enjoyed the picture perfect weather. The tide was insanely low, but we used it to our advantage. We found a pond almost completely dry, except for one swimming sized pool of water in the middle. Our redfish were feeding there. Mike and I let the guests pitch live shrimp into the pack reds. It was about as close to "fishing in a barrel" as you could get. The fish were spooky, but they just let their live shrimps sit, and eventually the reds couldn't resist the easy meal.

We checked a few deeper holes later in the day. Mike locked into a massive black drum, and the others picked away at fresh water catfish. All the while we had numerous species of birds fly over. Even had one curious alligator come and check us out.

As with all of our trips, it seemed to end too soon. The entire way home we traded stories about work, and plans for the evening. Mikes guests were heading to nice dinner and hitting the town. The good vibes continued all the way back to the dock in Bayou Caddy.

Our little piece of heaven down here in western Hancock County is such a great place.

This wonderful weather and friendly people make it that much better. If you have some time, you owe it to yourself to come on over to the west side of the coast. You won't regret it.

Hancock tops Harrison Central, Rocks slip past Newman; Hancock wins two on diamond

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The diamond season has flown by with the postseason not far away on the horizon. There is roughly two weeks left in the regular season before the second season begins. Area teams were all in action last week.

BASEBALL

The Bay High Tigers dropped a 16-1 decision with Greene County last Tuesday. The Tigers managed two hits in the game with Eli Bigham collecting a single and Ethan Kingston smacking a triple and scoring the lone run.

The Hancock Hawks are on the verge of advancing to the state playoffs with two wins against Harrison Central last week. The Hawks got a 6-5 win over Harrison Central on Tuesday and a 5-1 win on Saturday. The Hawks fell to Harrison Central 6-4 on Friday night.

In Tuesday's game, the Hawks got two hits from Tanner Ladner, Blaine Knight, and Ryan Ladner while Peyton DeWitt, Max Garrett, and Dylan Peterson all had hits.

On Friday, the Hawks fell 6-4 in a game that honored seniors Brandon King, Knight, Nicholas Cuevas, and Ryan Ladner.

The Hawks got down 3-0 by the fifth inning, but added a run in the fifth when Tanner Ladner drove in Hunter Kuhn.

In the bottom of the sixth inning, DeWitt led off with a single and Ryan Ladner laid down a sacrifice bunt. Knight moved DeWitt to third with a single while Jeffrey Hopgood drove DeWitt in to score. The Hawks added another run to knot the score at 3-3.

In the top of the seventh, the Hawks loaded the bases with a walk and two hit batters before King retired two batters in a row with short pop-ups. However, he gave up a three-run double that gave Harrison Central a 6-3 lead.

In the bottom of the seventh, Tanner Ladner led off with a single followed by a walk from Garrett. Ryan Ladner drove in Tanner Ladner before time ran out on the Hawks.

Hancock head coach Anthony DeWitt stated, "This is a tough loss. After getting down 3-0, we battled back to tie the game and were close to getting out of a big jam in the seventh but they converted on a big hit. We got a little bit of a chance in the seventh, but it was not enough."

On Saturday, the Hawks beat Harrison

The Saint Stanislaus/Our Lady Academy tennis team won the Division 8-3A championship last week with a decisive win over St. Patrick and West Marion. The victory gave the squad their 23rd overall division championship.

SSC/OLA head tennis coach Andrew Garman commented, “We finished the season with a 5-4 overall record but that is a little misleading as we played several 5A and 6A squads. We competed well with those larger schools which is a great sign of the type of players we put on the court. We have had some very consistent play out of Omar Tayara and Jacqueline Mossy throughout the year. Their leadership on the court has trickled down to the younger players and we seem to be playing some solid tennis right now. We hope to continue to play strong as we progress in the team playoffs.”

On Saturday, the team defeated McLaurin in the first round of the team state tournament 7-0.

The SSC/OLA team will play the winner of Raleigh/Enterprise-Clark on Thursday at a to be determined location.

The team state championship will be played at Halls Ferry Park in Vicksburg on April 21.

All courts for the combined team advanced to the individual state tournament that will be held in Oxford, April 25-28, at FNC Tennis Center in Oxford.
